

July 21-31, 2004

STONY BROOK FILM FESTIVAL

Is Proud to Announce

The 2004 Award Winners

2004 GRAND PRIZE

THE ROCKET POST

Directed by Stephen Whittaker; written by James MacInnes and William Morrissey
Produced by Mark Shorrock • From Kathy Morgan International

2004 JURY AWARD — BEST FEATURE

SAINTS AND SOLDIERS

Directed by Ryan Little; written by Geoffrey Panos and Matt Whitaker
Produced by Adam Abel and Ryan Little • From Excel Entertainment

2004 AUDIENCE CHOICE AWARD — BEST FEATURE

HER MAJESTY

Written and directed by Mark J. Gordon
Produced by Walter Coblenz • From Panorama Entertainment Corp

2004 JURY AWARD — BEST SHORT

DAY OF INDEPENDENCE

Directed by Chris Tashima; written by Chris Tashima and Tim Toyama

2004 AUDIENCE CHOICE AWARD — BEST SHORT

COLORFORMS

Written and directed by Eva Saks

2004 STONY BROOK FILM FESTIVAL LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

PATRICIA NEAL

2004 STONY BROOK FILM FESTIVAL CONTRIBUTION TO FILM AWARD

RICK MCKAY – Writer, director and producer of "Broadway: The Golden Age"

Stony Brook Film Festival 2004 - Closing Night

L to R, top row: Chris Tashima, Day of Independence; Kim Fox, The Rocket Post; Kirby Heyborne, Saints and Soldiers; John Anderson, Newsday's chief film critic and presenter of the evening's awards; Eva Saks, Colorforms; Mark J. Gordon, Her Majesty. Bottom row: Jeff Balsmeyer, director, Danny Deckchair, the closing feature; Alan Inkles, director of the Festival.

www.stonybrookfilmfestival.com

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR THE ARTS